Congratulations! Today is your day.
You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!
You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.
You'll look up and down streets. Look 'em over with care.
About some you will say, "I don't choose to go there."

With your head full of brains and your shoes full of feet,
you're too smart to go down any not-so-good street.
And you may not find any you'll want to go down.
In that case, of course, you'll head straight out of town.
It's opener there in the wide open air.

Out there things can happen and frequently do
to people as brainy and footsy as you.
And when things start to happen, don't worry. Don't stew.
Just go right along. You'll start happening too.

OH!
THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

In Loving Memory Of

Michael Cronin

(1983 - 1998)

Since I was little I can remember going to the lake every summer. It was during one of these trips that we were kept inside because of a huge storm.

It started off with a high tide crashing against rocks, making sprays of white foam. A harsh wind began to blow, causing all the trees to rock back and forth.

The wind grew and soon clouds began to form. Rain started to fall, the tiny drops making ripples in the water. At this time it started to become dark-the storm was growing. The great clouds placed a gloomy shadow over the land. A motor boat streaked by, trying to outrun the menacing giants. Suddenly, a bolt of lightning lit the night sky. I looked in awe. Following this was a crack of thunder that made me jump. I ran to my mother's arms and felt safe in her comfort. Then I fell asleep.

I remember waking up in the next morning to a bright sunny day. The lake glittered as it was hit by sunlight. Birds were chirping, the trees were still, everything was calm. The storm had passed.

ame to SHS on Nov. 09, '99, - (My rthday) with a couple words of English
 guage and now I'm going out fluently eaking it. I'm saying this because this is e only thing why i will never forget this hool and why I will always be thankful to me people in this school. I was not happy
 this school - but that is no one's fault.
 ere is only one place and one school
 ere I could be happy, but life, God, or

Peace out SHS, I'm off to the 13th grade. I can't say I'm going to miss much. I can't say there's much to miss. I enjoyed double parkries that I can enjoy at home. I'm not carrying with me memories of skipping school, because I went to school for 4 years, and tried for 4 years. I've remained straight edge, and never cut class, YET my class rank is 126. For me personally I don't plan

on seeing most of you again until our class reunion, assuming I go. But SHS isn't all had, its actually pretty good, it's just the drugs and attitudes that hring it down \-!!!
Peace out SHS I'm off to life

As my time at Saugus High has come to an end, I want to thank all my friends and teachers for making these years fun and memorable. To my friends, I'll miss the stories at lunch, being in class together and hanging out after school. One of the best memories at Saugus High will be the hard work and dedication of my teammate's and myself during lacrosse season. To Gina, Thank you for asking me to the Junior Prom. You are the best thing that happened to me. You made senior year the best it could ever be. Last, but not least, I would like to thank my family for all their love and support throughout my years at Saugus High. Without all of you I would not be the person I am today.

I can't believe its over. The past 4 years have gone by so fast. I think I am ready to leave but I don't want to because it has been so much fun. How can you forget about football or the 7-2 freshman season. Hockey games with the guys, SD and the beast. Pastabar and Sunday morning breakfast w/ RB + NG, late night Burger King, going out to eat with the guys. Opening day with CY. The Beanpot w/ Belch, never forget slapshot. War stories w/ DK, scavenger hunts HW2K, and all the other random acts of immaturity. To AW, JM, BN, TY, BM + PQ good luck next year. To all my coaches thank you for everything. MR, MC, DK, NG, JF, RB, AW, GE you're the best. Mom, Dad, Donny I love you thanks for everything. Take it easy.

Renee Zwicker

In My Life

By Paul McCartney and John Lennon

*There are places I'll remember,
all my life though some have changed.*

*Some forever not for better,
some have gone and some remain.*

*All these places have their moments,
with lovers and friends I still can recall.*

*Some are dead and some are living,
in my life I've loved them all.*

*But of all these friends and lovers,
there is no one compares with you,
and these memories lose their meaning,
when I think of love as something new.
Though I know I'll never lose affection,
for people and things that went before.
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
in my life I love you more.*
